The Council Yields Reluctantly to His Veto.

A franchise so vague, indefinite and yet so broad and sweeping as the one in question, in my opinion should not be granted.

R. N. Haskin, Mayor,

R. S. Haskin, Mayor,

R. S. Haskin, Mayor,

R. S. Haskin, Mayor,

R. S. Haskin, Mayor,

There was deep silence for two seconds. Horn was the first to break it. This is not the first time, he said, that the council has received chastleement at the hands of the mayor. It is high time that this should cease: that something be done. What are we have for! Are the fifteen gentlemen who sit here respensible for what they do? We can't pass a resolution, no matter whether of great or small importance, but it is returned to us in this way, and I am in favor of passing it over the mayor's veto

City.
The resolution again passed: Yeas—
Beardsley, Bell, Evans, Helss, Horn, Karricz, Lawson, Kelley, Loofbourow, Moras, Simondi, Wantland, Noes-Rich, Hardy, Folland.

WILL GRAVEL TRIED WEST. The Great Salt Lake & Hot Springs Railway company announced that it pro-posed to begin handing gravel on Third West street and distribute the same, so as to make a good street. Referred.

J. W. Greenman and others asked that G. D. Amos be appointed inspector of food. Referred. ITS BOND PILED.

The bond of the Pacific Paving company in State street was presented and ap

J. J. and P. H. Riley, owners of Lead-ville subdivision, asked that the city allow them certain water rights. Owing to an absence of records, the politioners stated that they did not know just where they stood.

The question of sidewalk fruit stands came up on a petition of C. C. Wilson, who asked to be allowed to put up a stand near Smith's coreer.

Wantiand objected to the granting of the petition, and the other members of the council concurred with him. There will be no more sidewalk stands allowed.

SEWER PIPE ORDERED.

The bid of the Denver Sower Pipe cam-dany for furnishing cast iron sewer pipe was accepted and the mayor was authorized to make the purchase at once. The Den-ver company's bid was $2,424.40.

THE PAVING CONTRACT LET.

The Paving Contract Lett.

The board of public works reported that they had entered into a contract with the Culmer-Jennings Paving company for the paving with asphaltum Main street from South Temple to Third South, and First and Second South streets from State street to West Femple. The company having filed its bond in the sum of $35,000 for the proper completion of the contract. The report was accompanied by the contract, specifications and bond.

Lawson moved that the contract be confirmed.

Rich said that before this was done be saided all the papers filed in the matter oretofore.

The protests against the use of the Cuimer-Jennings pavement filed at the time the bids were made were read, as follows: We the undersigned petitioners, respectfully rotest against the letting of the contract for aving Main and First and Second South treets to the Culmer-Jennings Paving com-

BASKIN IS ON TOP, the paying of our main streets. Wherever this material has been tested, competent engineers have pronounced it a failure.

While we Tayor the use of home materials whenever it is consistent with the public intercent, we protest against the iax of our money by this company in a venture which is at best a rash experiment.

rash experiment.

Should your honorable body persist in letting the contract to this company we will refuse to pay the paying tax levied upon us unless we are given a good and sufficient bond to secure us against the fallure of this work.

Thomas W. Jennings, owner and agent for 23 feet frontage.

Recorder Stanton presented a protest representing 2,713 feet against paving contract on Brigann street. The number of feet was insufficient to defeat the contract, and the city attorney was directed to prepare the necessary ordinance.

LAWSON AND THE PARK. Lawson wanted the park ordinance taken up and acted upon. The council refused to take up the ordinance.

favor of passing it over the mayor's veto by fitteen votes. How much longer are we going to stand it!

The city engineer in a communication stated that on account of the extra work imposed on him by the council he was compenies to draw up franchises in the interests of the city. Just as long as the council allows the atterneys of the companies to draw up these documents the trophic will contidue.

The engineer also presented a communication to provide the companies to draw up these documents the trophic will contidue.

THE STATE STREET PAVEMENT.

The engineer also presented a communication from the Pacific Paving company to make a record as a veto mayor. It was sumply impossible for the council to do anything without the chastisement of our autocrat. "The mayor," he said, "beings to a veto party."

Moran objected to any such language, and called Lawson down.

Lawson retorted that it was high time Moran took a few lessons in decency himself.

WANT TAT FOR POLITICAL WORE.

The chief of police reported that Officers Matthews. Allered.

The attorney also reported in answer to Lawson's request that the Rock Mountain Hell Telephone company's franchise gave them the right to erect poles and wires on all streets of the city.

The attorney's quarterly report was received and flied.

Tag., Simondi, Wantland. Noss-Rich, Hardy, Folland.

Noss-Rich, Doesn's Want communatin Polls.

The Salt Lake City Railway company protested against the passage of a resolution compelling it and other companies to use combination poles.

WILL GRAND.

The sanitary committee recommended that a rigid sanitary inspection be made of Sait Lake by the board of health and sanitary inspection at once. The report was adopted. adopted.

The board of public works was in-structed to have cross walks built upon Main and West Temple streets.

THE CITY'S FINANCES.
